NLP Qualifications - Clive Alcock

Clive Alcock is the Founding Director of NLP Corporate, an expert consulting firm established in 2004, specialising in the provision of high quality applications of Neuro-Linguistic Programming (NLP) that can significantly improve your human and business performance – delivering results with integrity.

Clive has extensive training in NLP began in the mid 1980's and since that time has included studies with many of the world's leading trainers and service providers in the field. This, combined with over 25 years of senior level experience in change across large corporate enterprises, enables Clive to offer clients a range of highly effective, NLP-based business consulting services and solutions.

Completed very extensive modelling of Self-Relations Psychotherapy with Dr. Stephen Gilligan – Sydney, Australia and Southern California (2000-2011).

Certified international Trainer of Neuro-Linguistic Programming and Cert IV Trainer & Assessor, completed with Inspiritive - Sydney, Australia (2004).

Awarded Graduate Certificate in Neuro-Linguistic Programming (22133VIC), completed with Inspiritive & Dr. John Grinder - Sydney, Australia (2004).

Completed numerous NLP short courses over a ten year period with Dr. John Grinder through Inspiritive - Sydney & Melbourne, Australia (1996-2006).

Certified Master Practitioner in NLP and Personal Evolution with Grinder Delozier & Associates; UC Santa Cruz, California and Wyoming (1989).

Completed Practitioner, Master Practitioner & Train the Trainer in NLP 'new code' with Grinder, Delozier and Associates - Sydney, Australia (1986-1988).

Completed initial intensive residential trainings over two consecutive years in NLP 'classic code' with Phil Boas - Melbourne, Australia (1984-1985).

Clive's impressive credentials in Neuro-Linguistic Programming (NLP) are further underpinned by post graduate qualifications in Organisational Change Management; Bachelor's Degree in Psychology; and supporting Diplomas in both Adult Education (Training) and Human Resource Management.
